The Graduate* Continues to Seduce Audiences After 50 Years, Returns to Cinemas Nationwide in 50th Anniversary Restoration
April 23 and 26 Only as Part of the TCM Big Screen Classics Series

WHAT: The Graduate is back on the big screen for two days this April in a new 50th anniversary restoration, a rare theatrical presentation as part of the year-long TCM Big Screen Classics series. Audiences will also be treated to specially-produced commentary from Turner Classic Movies (TCM) host Ben Mankiewicz, both before and after the feature.

Adrift after college, 20-year-old Benjamin Braddock (Dustin Hoffman) is seduced by much-older family friend Mrs. Robinson (Anne Bancroft) in director Mike Nichols' 1967 The Graduate, the picture that captured the mood of a generation, catapulted Hoffman to super-stardom and garnered seven Oscar nominations, including a Best Director win for Nichols.

Benjamin is the proto-Millennial, who is torn between his girlfriend, Elaine Robinson (Katharine Ross), and her mother, each of whom fills the void he feels after entering the real world. Turning its lens on life during the social and political turmoil of the late '60s and supported by an iconic soundtrack by Simon & Garfunkel and Oscar[®]-winning composer Dave Grusin, The Graduate is as relevant today as it was when it debuted 50 years ago.
