

Raymond C. Nutt
CEO
Fathom Events

Ray Nutt is Chief Executive Officer of Fathom Events, the leading domestic distributor of event cinema, and one of the largest overall distributors of content to movie theatres. He brings more than three decades of experience in the entertainment business at Regal Entertainment Group and United Artists Entertainment to his role as CEO of Fathom Events.

Ray is a seasoned veteran and collaborator in the media business with the majority of his career spent in the theatrical exhibition and cable television industries. In his most recent post, Nutt was the Senior Vice President of Business Relations for Regal Entertainment Group where he oversaw Regal's interests in several joint ventures and Regal's Corporate Box Office division. He was also a Board Director for Fathom Events.

Prior to Regal Entertainment Group, Nutt had a significant amount of success growing established and startup businesses for Regal CineMedia and United Artists Theatres.

Previously, Ray experienced a diverse background of employment in the telecommunications, health care and insurance industries. He graduated from Illinois State University in 1983 with a double major in Industrial Technology and Occupational Safety.

Ray lives in Lone Tree, Colorado with his wife and they have two children. Outside of work, he enjoys running, fly fishing, skiing, ATV riding, music, charitable involvement and spending time with his family.